

Music in the Stacks: Trashcan Joe

Trashcan Joe will perform at the library on Monday, October 10, 6:30 p.m.

Trashcan Joe has a unique sound with soaring vocal harmonies and modern song writing set in a soundscape harkening to the early jazz era. Their instruments are made from recycled and found objects. They have performed at events such as Pickathon, Burning Man, Oregon Public Broadcasting's Live Wire, the Northwest Folklife Festival in Seattle, and Oregon Country Fair, and they were the house band at the Candidates Gone Wild at the Roseland Theater.
